

BRUNO ALBOUZE

Chef Bruno has cooked for our family for several years. One of us is a vegan gourmet, with meticulously strict dietary requirements, while another is an omnivore gourmet, and yet another a "fegan"--a vegan who eats fish. A lesser soul might wilt at the task of cooking for such a bunch, but Bruno approaches it all with aplomb. He is creative, constantly changing the menu so it is always diverse and delicious, and integrating exclusively locally grown and organic ingredients. Recently, Bruno whipped up a festival meal for no less than 22 our our extended family, and i can't count how many wonderful comments i heard about the delicious, moist, perfectly done turkey, the ratatouille, the superbly roasted greens, and even the berries and whipped cream. we are still reveling in the tastes, not only in our imaginations, but in the leftovers! We cannot recommend Bruno highly enough. Bon Appetit!

Bruno catered a Christmas party for my husband's work group. The food he prepared was absolutely delicious. Beforehand, Bruno and I talked on the phone to come up with a menu for the guests. The morning of the party, he came over to our house early and set up. He cooked all day...getting things ready for that evening. I have 5 year old twins and a dog that continually mingled around Brunos' feet. He never got irked, instead he included the kids in some of the preparation. By the time the guests arrived, Bruno had created the most lavish spread of food. The way he arranged it was so beautiful and inviting. Our guests raved on and on about how yummy everything tasted. When the party was over Bruno cleaned everything up and left us with lots of scrumptious leftovers. If I ever have another party where I need a professional chef, I'll definitely call Bruno. He's totally professional, talented and a joy to work with. I highly recommend him.

I highly recommend Chef Bruno. I have hired him for my birthday and my sons birthday. My guests were all "wowed" from his work and still talking about it. He is amazingly talented. He pays attention to detail and doesn't accept anything less then perfect. Not only was the presentation beautiful but the flavors and taste were just as wonderful. I have hired him to cook for me on other occasions and I have never been disappointed He is highly professional but also personable and pleasant. He is trustworthy and I feel confident and comfortable when he is in my kitchen. He goes the extra mile doing more then expected without being asked. He is meticulously clean and organized. He works quickly and takes pride in his work. Whoever he works for is lucky to have such a high caliber Chef.

I hired Bruno as an instructor at Cooking With Class. He arrives ready to work and does a wonderful job teaching and entertaining my cooking students. We get rave reviews when he prepares lunches for seminars at our parent company, San Diego Kitchen & Bath. In addition, Bruno is an artist in bread sculpture. We are so fortunate to have one on his famous works on display in our showroom. I couldn't recommend Bruno more highly. He is a delight to work with.
